

April 2015

Dear Parents,

It's Autism Awareness Month. Here are a few ways Innovations will be spreading awareness.

Light it up blue!

World Autism Awareness Day is celebrated every year on April 2nd to shine a light on and increase the awareness of autism. Wear your blue on April 1st in the ABA clinic and help us light it up blue!

Walk Now For Autism Speaks!

Save the date and participate! Once again, we will be participating in the Chicago Autism Speaks Walk on Saturday May 16th at Soldier Field. Watch for upcoming information on our kick-Off, fundraising ideas, t-shirt contest and more!

Blues Fest!

Our Innovations in Learning Blues Fest will be on Friday, April 24th, 2015 from 2-5pm.

This will be a great time filled with food, music, and carnival games. All proceeds go to Autism Speaks and Prevent Child Abuse.

Penny wars!

Penny wars is a friendly fundraising-competition between teams. The goal is to raise money for Autism Speaks; all proceeds will be donated to the cause. If you have any loose change you would like to donate, please bring it in and give it to your child's line therapist.

Spirit Week

Spirit week will be Tuesday April 7th – April 10TH. Don't forget to dress up!

Tuesday- Sports Day

Wednesday- Superhero/Character Day

Thursday- Pajama Day

Friday- Mismatch Day

Upcoming Events

The ABA Clinic will be closed April 2nd-April 6th.

We will be having an art show on Tuesday, May 26th! We will be displaying artwork from all of our kids! Please join us at 1:45 to enjoy the art and have some snacks your child.
